WHAT IS SCOUTING

Scouts is a boy's looking up to be a man and wishing in his heart that he could be more like than man-and the man admiring the boy and wishing he were more like him.

Scouting is a group of boys sitting a campfire in silence. No words are spoken, but the group is being welded into a team.

Scouting is a group of boys pulling together with a group of men for the common good. It is men doing things with rather for boys.

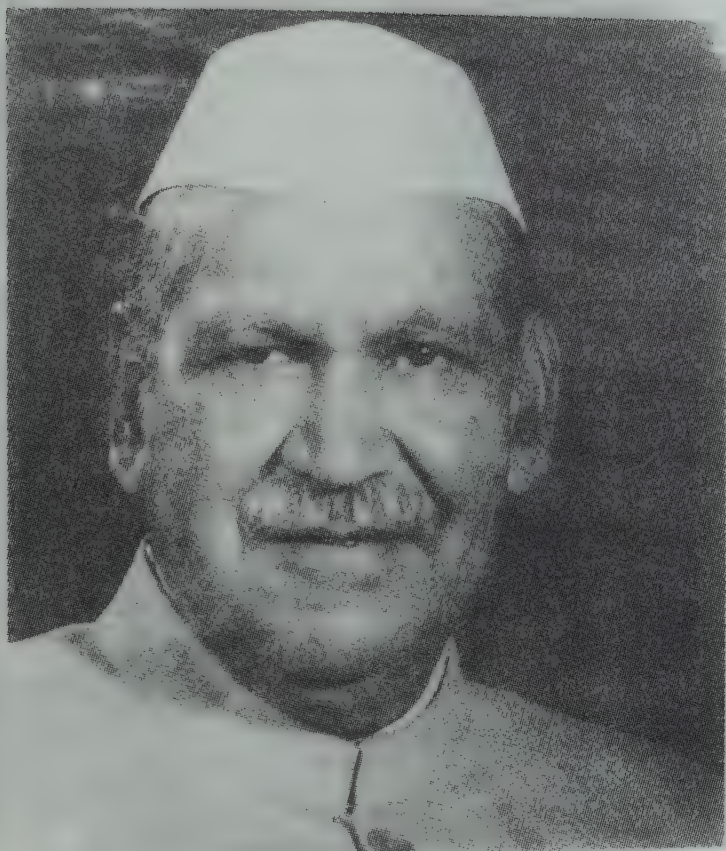

Scouting is a mother sewing on merit badges and an entire family proud of each advancement.

Scouting is noise and action and food and fun. It is play and release from restraint, yet it is purposeful and resultful.

It is boy setting his own goals and pusing himself toward their accomplishment. It is a man rating high what a boy is reaching for.

It is the youth of to-day in earnest about tomorrow.

THE IMPORTANCE AND THE ROLE OF CUBMASTER IN THE SCOUT AND GUIDE MOVEMENT

-Sri S. Audikesavalu, LT(C)
State org. Commissioner (S)

Cubbing is a great game and a very interesting programme of activities in the land of make believe full of delight and joy for the boys of 6 to 10 years. Guided by their Cubmasters, the young boys seek useful knowledge, acquire new skills progressively through their Charan Award and 15 Proficiency badges which Cubs wear proudly on their pretty uniform. The training is designed to suit the young boys characteristics and urges which are indeed peculiar to boys of this age group. Only a clever Cubmaster can take these urges and turn them to good account. Here lies the difficult task of the Cubmaster.

Before we underline the importance of the Cubmaster in the Movement , let us summarise the characters that will have to be instilled in the cub namely to develop good habits which automatically lead to self - discipline , knowledge of things which interest them with fun, joy and laughter making them a good Scout and a good boy in general . The cub develops a facination for the beauties of nature and thus an interest in his environment and the awareness of GOD. This leads to an interest in collecting and preserving things of interest and educative value as well as enabling the cub to exepress his creative skills. All this satisfy his need of adventure, exploration and also guide him along the path to understanding the need to prerserve and conserve "GODS' CREATIONS". Finally it will lead the Cub showing respect for elders , love for youngsters in the family and the neighbourhood, an unquenchable urge to be helpful and co-operative at all times .

To cut the "ROUGH DIAMONDS " into "BRILLIANTS" the Cubmaster must necessarily posses deep knowledge skills, understanding and insight into the psyche of the child mind as well as skills of observation , analysis and formation of a character summary of each member of his Pack. Moreover, he has to constantly use this "knowledge and skill"to cut the rough to produce the various facets of "Brilliance" in each of his CUBS.

On reflection we begin to realise the enormity of "Knowledge and skill" required for this grand task and therefore have to build the proper attitudes . Indeed the Cubmaster can and should be recognised as the all important " Diamond cutter" who visualises - where , when and how the basic "cuts" are to be made on which depends the other "cuts" which go to make a Cub -"a Scout or a Rover".

Interestingly it would be appropriate here to realise the close similarity between the role played by the Cubmaster in the development of his Pack and that of our traditional Indian System of education , the 'gurukulam' where the role of the 'Guru' encompasses that of the Cubmaster and even more.

Going back to the analogy of the diamond, each of the Cubmasters 'diamonds' will be used by the Scoutmaster and Crew Leader to form larger parts of the jewel which under the overall guidance and supervision of the Organising Commissioner goes to form a whole necklace "to adorn " Mother India.

Thus each and every "diamond cutter" has a far more important role to play in the formation of the necklace than is generally realised . It is he who must be urged, encouraged and helped in everyway to produce "of equal brilliance " in order that the whole necklace becomes a masterpiece of craftsmanship from "conception to completion".

SCOUTING AND RELIGION

G. Anthoo

Assistant Dist .Commissioner(C)
K.G.F South

SCOUTING is a jolly game in the out of doors, where boys can go adventuring together as older and younger brothers picking up health and happiness, handicraft and helpfulness. It gives physical , mental and spiritual development , in a word it develops "CHARACTER" which is more essential than anything else to a lad for making his way of life . So, scouting is a "way of Life"

By the term "RELIGION " is meant by pandits , sages and saints that it is a way of life. It signifies who thinks

1. Belief, 2. Conduct

Scouting sounds for both. Scouting provides that each child is made to develop in them a sense of "REVERENCE TO GOD". They are further made to realise the common eternal truth of existence of God.

These two ways of life Viz Scouting and Religion have close identity in working for development of boys and youngmen. Scouting seeks to fulfill , deepen and develop in boys innate reverence and faith in the Supreme power .

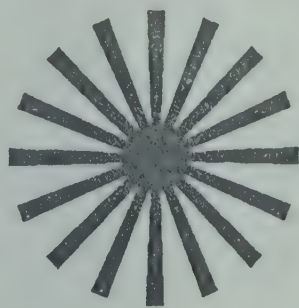

The Religion policy of Scouting is absolutely non-interfering . The essence of Scouting is the "Law and promise" . The whole structure of scouting is built on "Law and Promise" and this is based on Religion. So, scouting and Religion are the two faces of a coin.

The following are some of the methods followed in Scouting to inculcate in the minds of Boys the sense of God- They are ;

1. Regular attendance at the place of worship .
2. Reading of stories of great men, Saints etc.
3. Study of nature, exploration, camping, daily good turn , service jobs , personal example.
4. Organising "Scouts own" community prayer -All faiths prayer .
5. Remembering to say grace before meals. Reciting prayer after getting up in the morning and before going to bed.

Therefore " Scouting and Religion" are essential for the spiritual moral and educational development of the young ones all over the world .

NATIONAL JAMBORETTE

S. VINCENT ABRAHAM,
District Commissioner (S),
KOLAR SOUTH

Kolar Gold Fields is rightly called "SWARNABOOMI" not only because of its gold ore, but more so because of its excellence in various dimensions.

It was the hub of the Freedom Movement , Trade Unions, Sports and Scouting.

Well preserved documentary evidences are there in the District Head Quarters to establish that the Scout movement in KGF has its origin in 1917 itself . Mr. Iverse - a British official introduced the movement in KGF which was accelerated by Mr. H. A. Martin (DC) another British official emoloyed in Gold Mines .

In the begining Gold Mines was under 'JOHN TAYLOR & SONS 'an English pioneering Company in the field of Gold Mines . During this period the British expressed their nostalgic mood in the construction of broad Bungalows , Lush green lawns in lovely gardens and consequently KGF became a "Little England".

The Scout Movement in KGF gained momentum in the hands of an Indian official by name Doraiswamier who was the District Commissioner for 25 years (1935 to 1960). His period of tenure can be called the golden age of Scouting in KGF.

KGF Mines authorities encouraged the sports activities through well established clubs spread all over the city . Bare footed Indian Foot Ball Players tactfully played with the boot footed British and won many matches. One "Police Murugese " a foot ball player became a matinee idol to the youngsters of those days. When he went to Calcutta for a match , he was kept in a glass cabin and exhibited to the people who had became his fans.

It is interesting enough to note that the then Boxing Champion Gun Boat Jack (Negro Boxer) was knocked down by one George Shadow of KGF. Many such events can be quoted from every fields of activities in KGF.

KGF had Gymkhana Football Ground , Rugby Ground, Cricket Ground , Golf Ground , Hokey Ground, Tennis Courts, Squash Courts, etc., all these grounds are testimonies for the glorious sports events in the past.

Scouting was nurtured by Cultured British in the beginning and nourished by the enthusiastic local citizens in the middle- only in the later period it suffered a set back. Knowing this the State Head Quarters had rightly decided to hold the XXI jamborette here, So that the " PARADISE LOST can be regained "

At this stage the National Head Quarters should also come forward to have a National Jamborette .

KGF is fully equipped with all the infrastructural facilities for such a National event.

Pleasant climate, peaceful atmosphere , open air Stadium , both 25 and 50 Cycles of Electric Current , the State High Way, Broad Gauge Railway, spacious grounds, adventurous spots, are all available .

The two great industrial gaints BGML and BEML are always co-operative to any Social event in the City.

The XXI State Jamborette can be a rehearsal for the National Jamborette - will the National Head Quarters consider this appeal to boost the morale of the KGF Scouting?

A Camp is a roomy place, but there is no room in it for one chap, and that is the fellow who does not want to take his share in the many little odd jobs, that have to be done ; there is no room for the SHIRKER or the GROUSER - Well, there is no room for them in the boy scout at all, but least of all when in camp. Every fellow must help, and help cheerily, in making it comfortable for all.

PARENTS ROLE IN SCOUTING

By : S. PAULRAJ, B.A., B.Ed., L.T. (S)

Dist. Trg Commissioner (Scouts)

KOLAR GOLD FIELDS

Thoughtful parents are interested in finding out what the scout Troop expects of their sons and what, in turn, their sons have a right to expect from the Scout Troop ;

- They want to know the Scout master.
- They want to do their share to make scouting benefits their boys.

Many of the problems of individual scouts like;

- The boy who is not taking part in activities
- The boy who is behind in dues
- The boy who has no uniform
- The boy who is handicaped physically
- The boy who is mentally retarded
- The boy who is not interested in studies
- The boy who is an orphan or a destitute.

All these can be solved by a brief private chat with one or both of the parents or guardians or care takers. Other problems are solved co-operatively.

That is why troops organise Scout-parents. Sometimes into single group called "PARENTS GUILD". Sometimes into separate groups of MOTHERS and FATHERS. The "Scout Mumy Clubs", The "Scout Dads Clubs" of a particular Scout Troop in the locality.

A "PARENT GUILD" can be established with the approval of the Group Committee and the Scout Master concerned. It is a definite part of the Group and not a separate organisation, of course with a few office bearers.

Activities Of The Parents :

Here are some of the things that may be undertaken by an active 'Parent's Guild' to help the troops. Some of them best by the Mothers, others best by the fathers.

MONEY EARNING :

1. Arrange guest nights with attractive DINNER. Invite friends, relatives and big VIP'S and well-wishers who would definitely and willingly participate at this get-together and subscribe liberally for the troop efforts.

2. Arrange 'TREES' For example "X-MAS TREES" where a number of games and sports can be organised. Entrance may be by tickets. This will include 'FOOD SALES', 'LUCKY DIPS' etc., Food sales can be "Make sale cakes", nuts, packed buns, potato salad and home made candy and sweets.

RUMMAGE SALES :

1. Collect and sell discarded clothings, furniture, Knickknocks, Kitchen utensils, bottles and tins etc., and raise money.

2. Fun-Evening ; Sponsor and run community game evening or a community dance.

3. Equipment Making ; Scout equipments like woggles, scarves, belts etc., etc.

SPECIAL EVENTS :

1. Prepare Fathers and sons banquet.

2. Family Picnics.

3. Troop Birthday party.

4. Anniversary Dinner during the enrollment week and other parents night.

5. Special Service ; Send candy, fruits, cakes, biscuits and books to scouts sick at home or at hospital.

All funds raised by the Guild are for the use of the Troop to solve some of the above said problems and wants. The " Parents Guild" can also extend their co-operation and they are the driving force for their sons to become good Scouts.
